Live Music at St. Aidan's

Live Music At St. Aidan's is presented under the umbrella of 'Arts at St. Aidan's'. It aims to provide high quality music of varying types at affordable prices, performed by artistes from throughout the West Country.

Our fourth year in 2007 offers a varied and exciting programme, featuring new performers and the return of some old favourites.

All performances take place, unless otherwise stated, in St. Aidan's Church, Fir Tree Lane, St. George, Bristol. This 100 year old building features vibrant acoustics, and a friendly club atmosphere for the concerts.

We hope that we shall have the pleasure of welcoming you to St. Aidan's during 2007.

Programme July - December

2007

Arts
at St Aidan's

Tuesday
10th July 2007
7.30pm

Compadres

This band played for us in the Hall in April this year and nearly everyone was dancing. They play funky lively jazz with an authentic Latin flavour, sophisticated Latin rhythms, and Spanish vocals. Probably the best Latin funk band in the South West.

Tuesday
4th September 2007
7.30pm

Paul Roberts

At both his and our request, Paul Roberts makes a welcome return. His programme this time will contain sacred as well as secular pieces, played on St. Aidan's own refurbished Hele organ. (This concert is sponsored by Farrows, the award-winning Fish & Chip Shop, The Kingsway, St. George, to whom we are extremely grateful)

Tuesday
9th October 2007
7.30pm

Cantilena

A very highly regarded local mixed choir, Cantilena will include in their programme a wide range of choral pieces both ancient and modern.

Saturday
17th November
2007 at 7.30pm

"The Phantom of the Opera"

The 1925 version of the black and white film, starring Lon Chaney, with colour sequences, and being shown on the St. Aidan's wide screen. We are extremely fortunate to have live organ accompaniment provided by Mr. Donald MacKenzie, organist at The Odeon, Leicester Square, London.

Tuesday
4th December 2007
7.30pm

Bristol East & Kingswood Band

The welcome return of our local silver Band, with a programme of seasonal and other music to help get you into the mood for Christmas.

Sunday
9th December 2007
8.00pm

The Clifton Singers

The annual visit (the 11th!) of one of Bristol's leading mixed choirs, with a seasonal programme and some surprises.
