

BRISTOL'S BIG WILDLIFE MAP

Discover Bristol's best places to see wildlife

Bristol is a great place for wildlife – so, why not escape the hustle and bustle and get closer to nature... it's on your doorstep and it's good for you!

20. Old Sneed Park

Take a trip to Sneed Park to explore its flowery meadows and fascinating woodland dotted with old oaks. Keep watch for sparrowhawks.

19. ↑ The Downs

Take a summer's stroll through the colourful wildflower meadows for fantastic flowers, chirring grasshoppers and beautiful butterflies – you will be inspired!

18. ↑ Ashton Court

Visit in spring to see the ancient woodland bursting into life with bluebells and birdsong. In summer be amazed by soaring skylarks and meadow flowers.

17. ↑ The Gorge

Visit for fantastic views of cliffs and craggy ledges, home to spectacular peregrine falcons and the lollipop like Bristol onion.

17b. ↑ Leigh Woods

You can spend many happy hours exploring this beautiful woodland. Come for wonderful displays of bluebells and spectacular autumn colour.

16. ↑ Brandon Hill Nature Park

Drop in and de-stress! Escape the traffic for soothing bird song, and mellow meadow flowers – just minutes from the city centre.

Fox

1. Lawrence Weston Moor

Visit reed beds and old rhines for a taste of the Somerset Levels. If you are lucky you might spot a water vole.

2. ↑ Blaise Estate

Come and see Bristol's finest beech wood; enjoy tree-creepers, woodpeckers and woodland wildflowers.

Peregrine falcon

4. Narrowways Junction

Discover carpets of wildflowers alive with butterflies on this lovely old railway junction, home to foxes, slow worms and lizards.

3. ↑ Badocks Wood

This woodland is lovely at any time of year, but visit in the spring for glorious displays of bluebells, wood anemone and wild garlic.

5. ↑ Frome Valley

Visit this relaxing wooded valley for a great riverside stroll. Keep watch for dippers and kingfishers.

6. ↑ Royate Hill

Take a stroll along this lovely old railway embankment, and enjoy stunning carpets of oxeye daisies alive with insects.

Oxeye daisy

7. Bristol Bath Cycleway

Why not jump on your bike and take a spin along Bristol's longest wildlife corridor? Enjoy wildflowers, birdsong and some great blackberries!

8. ↓ Troopers Hill

Sit and enjoy breathtaking views, or go for a wild ramble over this amazing heather clad hillside. Butterflies love it here.

12. ↓ The Docks

Why not take a ferry boat ride, and sit back and enjoy magnificent swans, sleek black cormorants, and gulls galore.

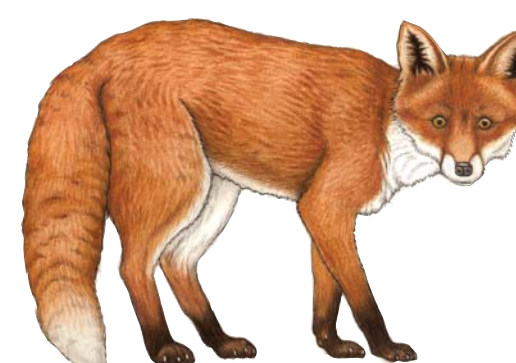

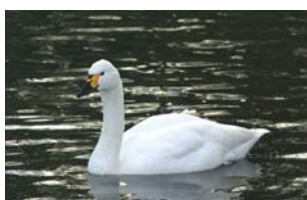

10. Arnos Vale Cemetery

Take a spooky stroll around this extraordinary old cemetery and discover wildflowers, woodpeckers and butterflies flourishing among the gravestones.

11. Stockwood Open Space

If you fancy a stroll through an old piece of countryside with beautiful hedges, meadows and old farm ponds, this is the place to be.

Bristol Parks working with Avon Wildlife Trust and the National Trust
Bristol Parks, Colston 33, Colston Avenue, Bristol BS1 4UA Tel 0117 9223719
www.bristol.gov.uk

This sign was kindly sponsored by BBC Breathing Places
© Photography kindly supplied by: Bristol City Council, Chris Jones and Darin Smith

© Design: dandi creative design | Illustrations: Abi Stubbs

